

The Golden Retriever Club of Greater Toronto is hosting a

“Field Fun Day!”

Sunday July 15, 2018 9am to about 3pm

This event is geared towards those who are interested in gaining practical knowledge about all things Hunt Test related. Participants will have hands-on training on hunt test set ups, including Winger set up and use, pistol safety and use, gunning techniques, duck calls, appropriate clothing, holding blinds and an intro to birds for puppies and dogs new to the sport.

Put your day’s training into play by running your dog in a practice test set up and watch them work!

We will be holding a demonstration by some of our club’s most accomplished Titleholders in order for participants to witness some amazing teamwork between dog and handler!
