

The Canadian Kennel Club,
Red Barn Event Centre &
Simcoe Performance Dogs present

a very special CKC agility weekend at the Red Barn in Barrie!

Saturday April 5th, 2014 (9 am – 6 pm) – CKC Agility Judge Workshop note date change

This is a fairly intense workshop hi-lighting the new rule changes that will be implemented in 2014 as well as the new CKC games. CKC Agility Council Members and judges, Danielle LeVangie, Sandra Esford and Adele McNivon, and CKC judge Sherri Gourlie will be helping with this presentation. Time will be given for small and large group discussions. New CKC agility rulebooks, seminar power point presentation, and CKC judges' handbook will be supplied at this workshop. An overview of CKC course design will be given with special attention to the new rules and games being implemented in 2014 will also be covered by CKC judges Marty Gadsby, Sue Miller and Sandra Esford. Participants must bring a laptop with Clean Run Course Designer on it and several of their courses for group analysis and discussion. This workshop is recommended for all CKC agility judges and those that wish to become CKC agility judges, as well as clubs and groups that put on CKC agility trials and anyone who wants to learn ALL the ins and outs of the new CKC agility rules. Snacks, lunch and beverages will be supplied. Judge participants are encouraged to participate in the Saturday evening and all participants are encouraged to attend Sunday and may run a dog on Sunday at no additional charge. Cost $125 + HST. Certificates will be provided to those that complete this workshop.
