About Liz

With an infectious enthusiasm for all things dog, Liz is affectionately known as the dog sport enabler by her colleagues, teammates, students and fellow competitor. Liz has been actively training and competing in a variety of sports and activities using positive training methods with her Parson Russell Terriers since 1999, including flyball, dock jumping, earthdog, agility, conformation, weight pull, coursing, racing, scent work, disc dog, obedience, rally, barn hunt and truly just about anything her dogs find interesting! Her dogs have collectively earned over 100 barn hunt titles including 6 RATCHX and above titles. Her students continue to succeed around the country and even were on the podium at the 2015 BHA Grand National. Liz is an active barn hunt judge, event secretary, mentor and trainer known for thinking outside the box and viewing each of her dog and handler team as an individual.

Got Rat?

From Instinct through Master, learn about this fun and exciting sport and how to start your dog off on the right paw for a long and successful career. This seminar discusses rules and beginning handling strategy, while developing skills that will be used to earn that first RATCH and beyond. Maximize your opportunity for success your new dog and build confidence and team work with your current competitor. All skill levels are encouraged to attend.
