

TNT TRAINING presents

BRENDA ALOFF

Competition Obedience Workshop Oct. 19 & 20 2013
12 Working Spots only! - Unlimited auditors

Returning to TNT by popular demand! Brenda previously presented a seminar at TNT in October 2012 to rave reviews.

At my first Brenda seminar I was enthralled with Brenda's insight on dog temperament and competition training. Brenda's extensive background on dog behaviour gave us a very perceptive look into what makes your dog "tick".

This upcoming seminar will focus on the competition dog.

- How to get the most from the dog and breed you love
- How to get your dog off food and ring ready
- How to motivate the experienced dog
- How to motivate different temperament types including: the shy and sensitive dog, the over zealous--anticipating dog, the pushy and reactive dog, the distracted dog or the one that has a poor work ethic. Brenda has worked with all these types of dogs for many, many years and will give you valuable tips on how to improve your skills to bring out the best in your dog.

Brenda's theory is based on positive and motivational methods. As an auditor I took a lot of notes of exercises to work on with my own dogs and was magnetized watching Brenda with the working dogs and students. Whether you take a working or audit spot, you are in a win, win situation!

Brenda's workshops are action packed. She has an incredible sense of humour and will keep you laughing the entire weekend. She will provide a powerpoint presentation and video clips throughout the 2 days.

Brenda has competed in competition obedience and herding. Breeds she has owned and trained are numerous Terriers, GSD, Poodle, and Border Collies. Like many dog handlers, Brenda also has a love of horses and is currently training and competing in dressage.

Ms. Aloff has written several manuscripts on dog training and behaviour, articles for magazines, participated in local and national radio programs (including WGN of Chicago – Steve Dale), produced a canine television program and currently serves as a consultant in canine behaviour for local media sources. She is a regular guest on KTOK Talk Radio in Oklahoma City with hosts Pat Becker and Kaylan Head on “Speak” a talk and call in radio show for dog owners.

She is a member of NADOI (National Association of Dog Obedience Instructors) and the IAABC (International Association of Animal Behavior Counselors). Ms. Aloff does clinics for dog trainers and pet owners.
