

TNT TRAINING presents

A Day with WARD FALKNER

Competition Obedience Workshop June 23, 2013

16 Working Spots Only! - Unlimited Auditors

Ward will be demonstrating numerous obedience exercises with his dogs. He will show how he teaches the exercise to achieve the utmost in accuracy & speed, and how to maintain this throughout the dog's competition career. Working students will be able to try some of these techniques and get problem solving advice on issues they may be having. Come and learn Ward's secrets to achieve a winning team!

Ward's Accomplishments

include:

Ward's success in competition obedience over the past twelve years has lead to his being recognized as one of the top obedience trainers and competitors in North America.

In 1999, Dogs in Canada Magazine ranked Ward and his Shetland Sheepdog OTCh, GMOTCh Simaril Slater as the #1 obedience team in Canada. This placement was followed by five consecutive years of placing in the Top Ten All-Breeds obedience dogs in Canada.

In 2008, Dogs in Canada Magazine again ranked Ward and his dog, this time Golden Retriever NOC, CTCh, GMOTCh Spirit's Zim Zam Zoom UDX6, OM5, as the #1 obedience team in Canada. With Zoom, Ward has established a number of Canadian obedience records which culminated in winning the AKC/Eukanuba National Obedience Invitational in the United States. As a result, Zoom is recognized as the 2011 National Obedience Champion.

Training Topics:

- Training - from the puppy through to the obedience champion
- Training the puppy in heeling, recalls, scent work, signals and go-outs
- Training the puppy in Utility exercises - early training for later competitions
- How dogs learn - through associations, consequences, reinforcement, chaining, back chaining
- Motivating the dog while training for speed, accuracy and consistency
- Using play training to create a positive attitude in the dog - getting a dog that “wants to” rather than “has to”
- Problem solving - anticipating, diagnosing and solving problems
- Preparation for showing - keeping your cool in the ring - dealing with ring nerves
