CARO RALLY OBEDIENCE JUDGING SEMINAR

Friday, January 29th, 2016
6:30PM – 9:30 PM

Doggin-it Daycare & Grooming

4116 MacLeod Trail SE
Calgary, Alberta

This seminar is open to current judges, those interested in becoming judges and participants interested in learning and gaining deeper knowledge how exercises are judged.

*** If you are interested in becoming a judge please read the following webpage:

**Requirements do NOT need to be completed in the order listed, and this clinic is a requirement to becoming a CARO judge.

Shadow judging, another requirement, will be available for all rounds of the related trial being held at the same location on Saturday January 30th 2016 ******

Participants should know the rules and regulations pertaining to CARO levels, including Working. Focus will be on Novice through Versatility levels, including Team and Brace.

NO DOGS PLEASE

As this is an evening seminar, please feel free to bring your dinner or snack. Beverages will be provided.

PLEASE BRING DRY INDOOR SHOES AND YOUR OWN CHAIR.

About the clinician: Sarah-Jane Petti

Sarah-Jane is in her 10th year of judging CARO and is also a CKC and World Cynosport (formerly APDT) licensed judge. She has put a total of 25 rally titles on her two dogs and earned the first Novice, Advanced, and Versatility titles on any dachshund (all varieties) in Canada.

Sarah-Jane is one of the first judges to become certified in Working Level, and was the very first in Canada to run Working Proficiency Tests. She has competed with both of her dogs in this exciting new variation of CARO rally

Sarah-Jane has sat on the CARO executive for one term as secretary (2008-2010) and is now serving as chair. This has allowed her to be involved in the formation and revision of the rules over time, and has attended numerous AGMs across Canada.

Competing and training in other sports such as earth dog, draft dog, formal obedience, agility, nose work and scent hurdle, Sarah-Jane enjoys working with all competitors both as a judge, CGN evaluator, as well as a Certified Professional Dog Trainer (CPDT-KA)

$25.00 to 2016 CARO Members and Judges

$40.00 for other attendees
