All classes, Regular & Non-Regular

I got my first Doberman when I was 17 years old. Forty-five plus years later and dogs still have me in their thrall. Owning, or better yet breeding, a superior specimen can only be the result of years of work and dedication to an ideal. We each set our own ideal firmly in our mind and then ceaselessly strive to attain that "ideal".

Perfection will always elude us, but never defeat us. In the last forty years I have bred and owned dozens of champions, both CKC and AKC. Owned and bred BIS, RBIS and BISS winners, made numerous life-long friends and enjoyed the company of some amazing dogs.

At some point in the past it occurred to me that I would like to take the next step in our sport, and so I applied for my Judges License. Over the years I've judged in Canada and the US, had the honour of judging the DPCC National Specialty, the DPCA National Specialty, other Doberman Specialties, Working Group Specialties and of course All-Breed shows.

What an awesome responsibility it is to stand in judgement of another's lifelong passion. But, at the end of the day there is only one breed winner and if your choice can tick most of the boxes for your "ideal" then you have indeed been blessed.

A strong, confident animal, substantial, sound in mind and body, excellent breed type. All the usual catch phrases... I see this dog in my dreams....
