Proudly presents

Our 2017 Judge's Education Seminar Series
In conjunction with

Our National Specialty Show
September 15-16th, 2017
Stratford, ON – Festival Inn (show site and headquarters hotel)

Breed Seminar – “The Hallmarks of the German Shepherd Dog”

Friday, September 15th

Presented by James Moses, “Kaleef” German Shepherd Dogs

This seminar focusses on the hallmarks of our breed – emphasizing the most important qualities when evaluating the German Shepherd Dog. James Moses will also offer a look at the evolution of the breed during the past 50 years.

Temperament Test Seminar – “Let Them Stand Loose”

Friday, September 15th

Presented by Sheree Moses – “Kaleef” German Shepherds

This seminar focusses on evaluating German Shepherd Dog temperament. Sheree Moses will share her expertise in this area and offer all participants the opportunity to practice the specific loose lead temperament test.

Ringside Mentoring – “Mentors, Mentors and more Mentors”

Friday September 15th and Saturday 16th – “Nobler” German Shepherds

Lead Mentor & Seminar Coordinator – Lori Iverson, “Nobler” German Shepherds

Lori Iverson will lead a group of breeders and breeder-judges who will be on hand in a designated seating area for 2 days of ringside mentoring. Hundreds of years of collective experience will be available for candid discussions and to help answer your questions.

Fee: $50.00

Certificates will be issued for all three components of this series.
