Introducing Our Judges

Alison Jones, DVM, National Specialty Judge

Alison Jones has bred and exhibited Great Danes since 1989, under the Karador prefix. She has also shown and/or bred Whippets and Scottish Deerhounds. She is currently eligible to judge Group 3, and approved for her permit for the first half of Group 2. Alison owns, and is the sole proprietor of, a busy veterinary practice, focusing on canine reproduction. She shares her home and life with 3 Great Danes and a Scottish Deerhound.

Carol Gray, Regional Specialty Judge

I acquired my first Great Dane in 1966. Duchess was a fawn puppy that was with me for thirteen years. This began a 32 year association with the Great Dane Breed that included Fawn, Brindle and Harlequin Great Danes. I was "Best In Show" at the Credit Valley Show in 1981 with a Harl. I learned the show world very quickly being mentored for many years by Ray Cataldi (Rojon). I am a life member of The Association of Great Dane Fanciers. In 1978 I founded Thunderally Kennel (Permanent Registered) as my kennel and have been known for breeding dogs of quality conformation and kind temperament. I was involved with Great Dane Rescue with Pat Whetstone for many of my years in the breed. I am proud to have been the breeder/owner of the first Canadian-bred winner in twenty five years at the American National Specialty in Westchester (1983) with a brindle boy AM & CAN Ch Thunderally's Bold Cheveron (Chevy). Chevy was one of seven Thunderally puppies in a litter that all finished in Canada...three in Canada & America.

I am a Canadian & American All Breed Judge licensed to judge the Working & Terrier breed. I am on permit in Canada for the Hound breeds. I have judged in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales as well as the Netherlands, Australia and Hawaii I am an International Bull Terrier & Miniature Bull Terrier ROM Judge.

Following my thirty two years in Great Danes I moved on to Bull Terriers & Miniature Bull Terriers. I have owned and bred some of the top Bulls and Minis in Canada including the top Bull Terrier in Canada (2016) MBIS MBISS AM/CAN CH Thunderally's Dapper Dan (Handsome) and the top mini in Canada in 2020 MBISS CH Thunderally's Mischevious Casper.

Shannon Van Norman, National Specialty Sweepstakes Judge

Shannon's lifelong passion for dogs began as a child and has never wavered. She purchased her first Newfoundland in 1991. Over the next few years, she added more Newfoundlands to her home and began her breeding program under the Tricklecreek prefix. She showed and bred Newfoundlands for over 15 years. After showing a Clumber Spaniel, Shannon fell quickly in love with that breed too as there were many similarities to the Newfoundland. Her passion grew to include dog shows and she worked to become an All-Breed professional handler. She specialized in the Working and Sporting groups.

Shannon has shown all over North America and has achieved multiple BIS, BISS, BPIS and over 200 group placements with her dogs. She continues to breed and show the Clumber Spaniels. Her passion and interest in the preservation of this particular breed fuels her continued work and volunteerism with various organizations and charities. Shannon is currently on the CKC Foundation Board of Directors, past President of the Clumber Spaniel Club of Canada, and member of the CSCC, CSCA, EKC, CKC, NDFA. She is currently perusing the credentials to become a CKC Licenced Judge.

Shannon lives in Spruce Grove, AB with her husband and their dogs, including the Clumbers, a Bloodhound and an English Toy Spaniel. She has two daughters and four stepchildren who all share her belief that a life is better when dogs are a part of it!
