OUR SPECIALISTS

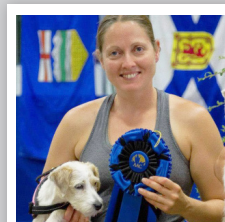

Dr. Sara Ritzie graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College in 2007, and worked in private practice for three years prior to joining Royal Canin. Dr. Ritzie was a Technical Service Veterinarian in the Veterinary Pillar for 1.5 years before stepping into her current role as Royal Canin Scientific Communications Manager of the Retail Division.

Dr. Emmanuel Fontaine completed his PhD in 2012 at Ecole doctorale Abies, AgroParistech and is also qualified at the European College for Animal Reproduction (ECAR). From 2005 to 2011 Dr.

Fontaine worked at the Centre d'Etude en Reproduction des Carnivores (CERCA) [Research Centre for Reproduction in Carnivores] in France; a unit specializing in pet breeding assistance. Dr. Fontaine joined Royal Canin Canada PRO Division in 2011.

Dr. Roxane Pardiac graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College in 2006. She is certified with the American Veterinary Chiropractic Association and the International Veterinary Acupuncture Society.

She has also opened her own small animal and equine mobile practice with a small animal office covering Guelph and surrounding areas. The majority of her clientele focuses on competition/performance animals.
