REMEMBERING SUSAN RICKWOOD

Susan was NYOC's Training Director and taught our puppy classes for many years. Susan loved dogs and was an incredibly dedicated NYOC member for 23 years. Susan had a tremendous knowledge of dogs and she shared that knowledge generously. Susan competed in a variety of dog sports, including conformation, rally obedience, and most recently earned field titles with her beloved Irish Water spaniel Vanna. Susan was a Ring Steward at this trial many times..

In retirement, Susan established her own dog training business, Paws 2 Train and earned her CPDT designation. She helped many people develop profound, transformative relationships with their dog. Most of all, Susan was a loyal friend who was always there for anyone who needed her advice and support.

We dedicate this trial to Susan, with gratitude for her dedication to NYOC, and for her wit, wisdom, and friendship. She is greatly missed and not forgotten.

Anne Thompson

Anne's introduction to Canada came during World War II when her father arranged for her to leave England and live in Toronto. On her return to England, Anne studied French and Spanish. Shortly after graduating, she returned to Toronto and made Canada her permanent home.

It was in Canada that Anne developed her love of dogs and her teaching skills (adolescent humans and dogs of all ages). For many, many years, Anne was a prominent member of NYOC where she served as president, past president, secretary, instructor, training director, chief ring steward, Drill Team member, and Drill Team Leader, to mention a few.

One of Anne's signature characteristics was her voice. It was low, loud, and commanding. She was born to be a drill sergeant with a heart of gold! She even developed a new drill called "Follow The Leader" for those strange places when columns, plants, and pianos reduced the performance area to the size of a postage stamp.

When Anne moved into a nursing home, the drill team made sure to visit. The audience was delighted to see the dogs perform but the smile on Anne's face outshone all the others.

Although Anne has been absent from the club for some time, she has never left the hearts of the NYOC members who knew and loved her. Dedicating this trial to her is a fitting tribute to the love she had for dogs and the many ways in which she brought people and dogs closer together.
