RULES GOVERNING THESE TRIALS

BC Cocker Spaniel Club reserves the right to remove any person from this sanction match. The trial chairperson shall have full control of this event which will be governed by the Canadian Kennel Club rules. The obedience trials chairperson shall promptly report to the CKC any infringement of this regulation and the discipline committee shall have the authority to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this has occurred.

No entry fee will be refunded if the trials cannot open or be completed by reason of riot, civil disturbance, fire, act of God, public emergency, act of a public enemy, strike or any other cause beyond the control of the club.

It shall be the duty and obligation of the show giving club to see that a judge, club official, volunteer or any participant at an event held under these rules is not subject to indignities.

The trial committee will use due care and diligence for the welfare of dogs and exhibitors, but will not be responsible for, or assume any liability in the event of accident, loss or other misfortune to dogs, exhibitors or patrons.

The welfare of an exhibitor's child is to be the responsibility of the exhibitor. It is distinctly understood that exhibitors will exercise control and restraint over their children during these trials.

The owner of a dog entered in these trials is entirely responsible for any error in entering their dog, regardless of how or by whom the entry was made.

Only dogs entered in the regular classes or for exhibition only are allowed within the precincts of these obedience trials. Dogs entered in the Open or Utility classes must have a CKC individual registration number or a CKC Event Registration Number (ERN) or a CKC Miscellaneous Certification Number (MCN)

Exhibitors are solely responsible for the conduct and actions of their animals while they are on the show grounds. All dogs must be kept on leash with the exception of exhibiting in the obedience rings.

Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning up after their dogs, inside and outside the buildings. Dogs are to be exercised in designated areas only.

Any dog excused by the trials Chairperson or a Veterinarian for any reason, shall not compete in any class for any award for the balance of these trials.

The entry form must be complete in every respect. Exhibitors must abide by any errors made in entering their dog.

In case of a substitute or overload judge change, an exhibitor may enter a dog under the replacement judge providing that the dog is entered in one of the regular classes of a show being held at the same venue by the same club and has been assigned a competition number. A new number along with the accompanying fees will be accepted by the Show Secretary up to one hour prior to the start of the show.

Tendering of an NSF cheque in payment of entry fees shall be considered non-payment, and is an offence punishable by disciplinary action and cancellation of awards (CH. 16, SEC 3, Dog Show Rules)

Bitches in season may not compete. Full refunds will be given for dogs withdrawn because of injury, illness or death and for bitches in season, if notification in writing is accompanied by a Veterinarian's Certificate. All refunds must be requested in writing and once the catalogue has been printed, will have the CKC event fees and listing fees, if applicable, deducted.

Any person either within or outside the judging ring, who does anything calculated to attract or distract or otherwise affect in any way, the attention department or performance of a dog under judgement, may be disciplined by the Discipline Committee in whatever way it considers in the best interests of the CKCSCBC, or the judge may take summary action.

The precincts of these trials are the enclosed area of Cedarbrook Stables.

Exhibitors should be familiar with the current, January 1, 2008 Canadian Kennel Club's Obedience Trials Rules and Regulations. Copies may be obtained from the Canadian Kennel Club, 200 Ronson Dr, Suite 400, Etobicoke ON M9W 5Z4 or at ckc.ca
