Judge Biographies

Leslie Hiltz

I started in the sport of Pure Bred dogs in Australia in 1967, with the purchase of a beagle. This dog whilst not a great beagle was a great show dog, and was responsible for involving me in the sport. I went to England on a working holiday in 1970 for 2 years, and during my stay in England I purchased 2 beagles and showed them all over Britain while I lived there. While there I became interested in Corgis, particularly Cardigan corgis, and took one home with me to Australia when I returned.

My main interest was always the Beagles however and over the years I was very successful in the show ring, with my breeding winning All Breed Best in shows, Specialty Best in shows, and many groups. I also provided the foundation stock for many of today's prominent beagle breeders.

I showed and bred a few Cardigan litters and also helped friends by showing many Pembroke corgis over the years. In 1988 I moved to the USA and married my husband, David (a prominent Beagle breeder/owner/handler). I took 3 Australian beagles with me and we blended those into the American lines that my husband owned. In the early 1990's we added a couple of whippets to our household and found out how much we enjoyed the breed. We showed them but did not breed them at this time.

In 1995 my husband took early retirement and so we moved (with all our dogs) to Australia for 2 years. We took seven beagles and the first 2 American whippets to go to Australia. These 2 whippets changed the face of the breed in Australia (along with subsequent American imports by other people). We showed and bred both whippets and beagles with great success during this period and I also took the opportunity to show my husband many parts of Australia.

In 1997 we returned to the USA, and settled in SW Washington State (we had lived in Michigan before). We continued to breed and show Beagles. Over the years we have consistently produced Group and Specialty winning Beagles. And always have hopes of another star sitting in the whelping box.

I have been involved with Dog Clubs in many positions from Secretary to President and have run many specialty and all breed shows.

My judging career started in Australia where I was approved to judge the Hound group in 1974 and the Toy Hound group in 1979. Since moving to the USA I continued to study and have now been approved the AKC to judge the Hound, Herding, Non Sporting and Toy groups as well as 9 working breeds. I have been privileged to judge Beagle Specialties in Australia, United Kingdom, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Germany, Mexico, Philippines and the Czech Republic, as well as in the US. I have judged the National Specialties for both Beagles and Basenji in the US along with regional specialties in many other breeds. I have judged Papillion & Newfoundland Specialties in Denmark. I have judged at All breeds shows in Australia, England, Chile, China, Denmark, Italy, New Zealand, Taiwan & Sweden as well as the US & Canada.

Patricia Cruz

Pat hails from America and Mexico and this year is her 53rd years as an approved judge for AKC and her 45th approved for all breeds by the Federacion Canofila Mexicana, the FCI member there. She has judged in Central and South America, Cuba, Sweden, Canada, Germany, India, Australia and New Zealand, and most recently in Korea and Thailand. In 2007 she judged at the World Dog Show.

She has been elected to two terms a member of the AKC Board of Directors; and, served as the first female Vice Chair of the Board. She assisted pro handlers at shows in the mid-1960's and was an AKC Executive Field rep, based in Texas, covering shows in the southwest and wherever needed in the US.

As a member of the Dog Writers Association of America for nearly 40 years, she was inducted into their Hall of Fame, having written on the sport of dogs for four major, New York newspapers; and is currently a member of their Board. A member of the Afghan Hound Club of America since 1978, the Knickerbocker Bull Terrier Club, and Heart of the Plains KC, serving as their Delegate to the American Kennel Club; and, held office in several Long Island kennel clubs.

She was a labor leader, marketing sales manager for major market radio station; and is a proud mother, mother-in-law, grandmother.

Debra Gschwender

My life in dogs started when I was 16 years old, showing my Rough Collie in Obedience competition. I then went on to show and breed Rough Collies in Conformation.

I bought my first Bouvier des Flandres in 1982 and that became my primary breed. While I have not had many litters over the years I have had dogs that won Best of Breed, Select Dog, and Award of Merit at the Bouvier des Flandres National Specialty, and that are multiple Group Winners.

In 2000 I started my judging career with the Bouvier des Flandres. I currently judge the Herding Group, the Non-Sporting Group, nine Working Breeds, fourteen Sporting Breeds and seven Terrier breeds.

I was delighted to judge at Westminster in 2013, judging several of the Herding breeds.

I currently own an Lagotto Romagnolo, a Bouvier des Flandres, and a German Shorthair Pointer. I discovered Scentwork and love it! Both the Bouvier and the Lagotto are competing in Scent work. I love to garden and enjoy photography. I also have a horse that I used to ride and drive, but is now retired. My husband and I live on approximately 15 acres.
