

DANDIE DINMONT TERRIER CLUB OF CANADA OFFERS $500 IN PRIZE MONEY FOR JUNIORS

ATTENTION JUNIOR HANDLERS FROM THE SENIOR CATEGORY (AGES 14-17) ITS TIME TO BRUSH UP ON YOUR DANDIE DINMONT BREED STANDARD

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Dandie Dinmont Terrier Club of Canada, the club is offering a unique competition for junior handlers: who will show Dandie Dinmonts only (provided by the DDTCC).

The competition will be part of the festivities with the Aurora Kennel Club and Pet Expo. It will be held in the Pet Expo Ring on Sunday November 24 (Time to be announced)

Each competitor will be asked to work with more than one Dandie to not only acquire knowledge of this charming, unique, endangered breed, but to also gain experience not just with push-button show dogs, but young puppies and adults with little or no ring experience.

Because of the limited number of dogs of this rare breed available for this competition, the classes may be divided. We reserve the right to limit the number of juniors who may participate.

The prize money of $500 will be offered for the following categories.

- Most knowledge of breed history and CKC breed standard: $100 for most correct answers
- Most patient handler with a young puppy or adult that is not show trained: $75 for 1st and $50 for 2nd
- The handler most able to adapt to each dog given to them: $ $75 for 1st and $50 for 2nd
- The Best Overall Dandie handler: $150

Juniors may sign up at the Dandie booth after 10 a.m. the morning of the competition. Breed standards will be available on the day, although we encourage the participants to carefully read the standard and learn more about the rich history of the breed before entering.
