I have bred, owned and exhibited Dachshunds (MS, ML, MW, SS) beginning in 1974 first under the Longjohn prefix and then under Thomashenry. Our Dachshunds have placed number one in their breed as well as many times in the top five. They have been multi BISS, BIS winners. I also pursue earthdog titles on my Dachshunds.

Our German Shorthaired Pointers won over 25 BIS, achieving number one status over several years, placing many times in the top ten Sporting dogs. They have been #1 obedience GSP, won multiple BISS Canadian and American including Best of winners at the American National. The top winning GSP, #1 Sporting dog in South America 1992 and only GSP to win the Sporting Group at the world dog show was Thomashenry bred. Thomashenry has champions GSP in six countries.

Our current breed, Labrador Retrievers have attained number one Labrador in 2016 as well as multiple BIS, American and Canadian BISS, number one puppy, as well as WC and field titles.

I have also owned and/or bred BIS, BISS top ranked Siberians; BIS, BISS top five Pembroke Welsh Corgi's and top five BIS Miniature Poodle and Shetland Sheepdogs.

I have served CKC on the conformation council for the last twelve years. I am actively involved in several Labrador Retriever and Dachshund clubs. I have judged National and Regional specialties, and all breed shows in Canada, USA, Japan, Spain, China, New Zealand and Australia. I am licensed to judge all breeds.

Armando Rosas Bravo

Originally from Mexico City, his career in this field began as a dog trainer as a child, as his father, Aaron Rosas Reyes, was one of the pioneers of dog training at the time.

This event led him to the decision to participate in a dog show ring; this was his debut as a professional trainer and handler in 1985. He has participated in multiple National and International events with different breeds, including Newfoundlands, Dobermans, English Bulldogs, Fox Terriers, Beagles, American Staffordshire Terriers and Alaskan Malamutes, amongst others, achieving recognized achievements such as Best In Show. In short, his life has been a round trip within and outside the country, contributing his part in different places with extraordinary dogs. Thus, after almost 40 years of experience, he decided to take a new direction and take the exam to become certified as a judge of all breeds in July 2017. Just a year later, in 2018, he began his career as a judge in the canine field he is so passionate about. It is worth noting that his career as a judge has developed in his home country, alongside renowned judges of different nationalities. His International license was granted in 2024.

My work as a volunteer in the Mexican Kennel Club let me to hold some positions like ring steward, and ring steward's chief from 1993 to 2009. I was elected judge of the year in Mexico in 2010 and was a member of scientific committee of the Chihuahua and

Xoloitzcuintle. (Mexican Hairless dog) club. Also as a volunteer at the FCM (Mexican Kennel Club) and in the Veterinary Medicine School of the National University of Mexico, from where I was graduated with a Doctor Veterinarian degree; I have participated as a speaker in cynological conferences in Mexico, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Russia and China. Jan Leach

We have been so lucky to have had German Shepherd Dogs in our lives since 1977. They are our constant companions and have been everywhere with us. In 1978 I showed our first GSD in Conformation and was introduced to the "dog world". In 1986 I bred my first of four litters under my CKC reg'd kennel name "Longpine", producing my first Champion. I had great fun showing her to her championship and by that time I was "addicted". I then decided to try my hand at Obedience with her and was "hooked".

There have been many highs and lows along the way but one of the most exciting things for me was showing my homebred bitch Ch/OTCh Longpine's Goin'a Different Road (Can/Am Ch DeBrut's Different Drummer UDX, NA x Ch/OTCh Longpine's K.O. Cody) to a Best in Show under the late Quentin LaHam. On the Obedience side, Sabre (MOTCh DeBrut Longpine OnTheWarpath, AKC UD, RA) has given me the greatest thrills, winning multi High in Trials from the Novice, Open & Utility classes as well as two "Dog World" awards". In consecutive yeas, along the way to his AKC UD, Sabre managed to win the Open A & Utility A classes at the German Shepherd Dog Club of America National Specialty. That same year he won the UA class he was the only GSD to qualify in Novice A Jumpers Agility - in spite of his handler. In 2005 he was number two GSD and one of the top ten Herding dogs in Canada.

My latest OTCh was Jinks (Ch DeBrut n'Longpine;s Hat Trick UD, RE, AKC GO and RE)She was so special!

I am currently training Mica (Longpine's Mica z Sotto for the Obedience ring. I could not have had all this fun with my dogs without the unending support of my husband, Wayne and his love for the dogs.

I belong to the Fort Garry Kennel Club, am a founding member of the Kenora & District Dog Club and have belonged to the German Shepherd Dog Club of America for the past 44 years as well as a life member of the CKC In 2012 I was honoured to judge both obedience and rally at the GSDCof America National Specialty.

I am licensed to judge CKC, AKC & ASCA Obedience & CKC & AKC Rally. I love judging and try very hard to make the obedience and rally rings a very comfortable place for the exhibitor to be !

UNOFFICIAL CLASSES

Amateur Owner/Handler

Exhibitor Eligibility

1. Exhibitors must declare their dog Owner Handled Competition eligible at the time of entry using the check box on the entry form or the indication of class entrance on online entry.
2. The handler must be an owner of record listed in the catalogue.
3. Professional handlers, household members and current assistants to professional handlers may not exhibit. Professional handlers are defined as any person who belongs or has belonged to a professional handlers' organization, distributed rate cards, or otherwise advertised or represented themselves as handling dogs for pay or received payment for handling a dog.
4. Dogs must be handled by an owner-handler throughout the breed level competition for the regular show. This includes the class competition and subsequent competition in the breed ring. The same is true for all levels of group and show competition.
5. The Best Owner Handled in Breed will be selected from the eligible dogs that competed in the Best of Breed competition for the regular show. This includes Winners Dog, Winners Bitch. This excludes all dogs defeated during class and winners competition for the regular show.

Determining Best Owner Handled in Breed

The selection of the Best Owner Handled in Breed is held immediately following regular judging of that breed in the same ring. The ring steward will excuse all exhibitors not eligible. The judge will then award Best Owner Handled in Breed.

Judging of the breed for the regular show may determine the dog that is awarded the Best Owner Handled in Breed.

Guidelines:

- If the Best of Breed winner of the regular show is eligible for Best Owner Handled in Breed it will also be awarded Best Owner Handled in Breed. In this case the dog will be eligible to compete in group competition for the regular show and group competition for Best Owner Handled in Group.
- If the regular show Best of Breed winner is not eligible for Best Owner Handled in Breed and the regular show Best of Opposite Sex is eligible, the regular show Best of Opposite Sex will compete against the eligible exhibits of the other sex to determine Best Owner Handled in Breed.
- If neither the Best of Breed nor the Best of Opposite Sex from the regular show is eligible for the Best Owner Handled in Breed and both the Select Dog and Select Bitch are eligible, the judge is to choose Best Owner Handled in Breed from the Selects and any eligible Winners Dog or Winners Bitch.
- If one of the Selects from the regular show is eligible for Best Owner Handled in Breed, excuse all eligible champions and then choose Best Owner Handled in Breed from the remaining eligible dogs of the opposite sex including the eligible Winners.
- If the regular show Best of Breed, Best of Opposite Sex, Select Dog and Select Bitch are not eligible, the judge may choose any eligible dog remaining in the ring including Winners Dog or Winners Bitch as the Best Owner Handled in Breed.

If no dog remaining in the ring is eligible for the Best Owner Handled in Breed competition, no award will be made and there will not be representation in group competition for the Best Owner Handled in Group.

Group and Best in Show Competition

- In the Group and Best in Show competition, the dog must be handled throughout the competition by an eligible owner.
- Group judging for the Best Owner Handled in Group may take place in separate rings from regular group judging.
- Judging for the Best Owner Handled in Show after regular Best in Show judging.

4. A Judge or any person participating in any capacity at a Dog Show held under CKC Rules shall not be subjected to any indignity of any kind during the progress of the show and it shall be the duty and obligation of the Club holding the show to see that this rule is effectively carried out. The Show Superintendent shall promptly report to the CKC any infringement of the rules, and the Discipline Committee shall have the power to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this rule has been violated.
5. Exhibitors are solely responsible for the conduct or actions of their animals while they are on the show grounds.

All start times are PACIFIC TIME.
7. The owner of a dog entered in these shows is entirely responsible for any error in entering his/her dog, regardless of how or by whom the entry was made.
8. A dog once disqualified for any reason at a championship show held under these rules cannot again be shown at a show held under these rules until the dog has been examined by an official committee appointed by the CKC and the committee finds the dog is free from the condition which prompted the disqualification. Application for reinstatement must be accompanied by a fee of $115 plus GST (for Canadian residents) ($230 non-resident), which shall be forfeited to the CKC if the examining committee is satisfied that the dog should remain disqualified.
