CLINIC INFORMATION

One day Introductory Herding Clinic on sheep. This clinic is designed for dog and handler teams who have limited experience working with sheep. It is recommend that participating dogs have proven interest in sheep either through an Instinct Test or class participation.

Fee: $185 per dog and handler. Lunch and snacks provided. The clinic is limited to 8 dog and handler teams. Auditing is available - $75 per person. No dogs belonging to auditors will be permitted to work the stock.

About Dianne Devison

Dianne Devison has been involved in the CKC herding programme since 1998, when she started training her first Australian Cattle Dog. Dianne is a CKC and AHBA herding judge and the CKC Herding Rep for Ontario East.

Dianne's dogs have excelled in their herding careers but not without the help of many individuals over the years. (Sue Jewell being a constant influence)

Dianne has worked with over 30 clinicians and attended even more herding clinics. You can always find a new tool for your tool box! Her Australian Kelpie is a herding champion in the CKC, AHBA and ASCA programmes.

Dianne retired from the Toronto Zoo after 35 years, as a keeper, then as an Animal Care Supervisor working with many species survival programmes such as the Western Lowland Gorilla. She has a special interest in bats and it wasn't unusual to see Dianne toting around a bat she was rearing, at the herding trials.
