REMEMBERING SYLVIA MILNE

When we received the news of Sylvia's passing, we knew that these trials had to be dedicated to her memory. Her efforts as NYOC's Trial Secretary for 27 years formed the solid foundation that allowed this event to be such a wonderful tradition which many of us look forward to every year. In addition, she served as the club's Assistant Trial Chair, Recording Secretary, Assistant Ring Steward, and Editor of The Barker. Members with long memories recall the lovely annual picnics at her home in Caledon, where they and all their dogs enjoyed a fun and relaxing time together.

Sylvia was also very involved with Therapeutic Paws of Canada, a non-profit organization providing therapy dog visits to hospitals, schools etc. Her dedication in providing her services and of course, her well trained dogs, ambassadors of good will between dogs and people, will not be forgotten. Sylvia always freely volunteered her time. As an old friend described her, "Ask and she was there".

We dedicate these trials to Sylvia, with gratitude for her hard work, dedication, and friendship. She will be greatly missed
